

December 10, 2007

Calgary lottery prize payout office opens December 11

Lottery winners of prizes up to $9,999.99 take note

Edmonton... The Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (AGLC) is moving the Calgary lottery prize payout office from the Royal Bank of Canada location to the AGLC office in the Deerfoot Atrium on December 11.

Until December 11, lottery claims of up to $9,999.99 were processed at:

Royal Bank of Canada
Village Square Shopping Centre
2640 – 52 Street N.E.
Calgary

As of December 11, 2007 these claims will also be handled through the AGLC office at:

Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission
Deerfoot Atrium
110, 6715-8 Street N.E.
Calgary

The hours for the new office are Monday to Friday from 8:30am. to 3:45pm.

The Royal Bank location will cease processing claims as of February 29, 2008.

Prize claims $10,000.00 and over will continue to be processed through AGLC's St. Albert office.

For more information on prize payouts, please call 1-800-665-3313

More information on the new ticket validation process or other prize claim enhancements are available on <http://www.aglc.gov.ab.ca/gaming/claimingprize.asp>

-30-

Media enquiries may be directed to:

Neil Hoffman
Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission
Communications
(780) 447-8740